President's Message

We have 153 people receiving this newsletter! Welcome!

Our next meeting will be held on December 7th, in the MacDonald-Cartier Room in the Poirier Community Centre at 630 Poirier. It's an undercover walk from the Mike Butler Room, head east past the paintings in the display case under the covered walkway and then turn north to the Poirier Community Centre. It is the building closest to Poirier Street, right across the street from the ice rink and swimming pool in the Coquitlam Recreation Centre.

Come and enjoy some refreshments at 7:00 pm and sign up for our bus trips after you get your membership. Our meeting will start at 7:30 pm and our guest speaker, Paul Steeves will begin at 8:00 pm. Paul will be sharing his visit to Antarctica in 2013 with photographs of King Penguins, icebergs, Ernest Shackleton's grave as well as fabulous landscapes. He has 24 years of experience working with Wildlife Rescue in Burnaby and they often use his photos.

We've been invited by Eda Kadar, the co-president of the Vancouver Skiers to a presentation by John Baldwin who is touring the province with his new book "Soul Wilderness" at the Cambrian Hall, 215 East 17th Avenue in Vancouver.

She writes: Partners, co-authors and photographers John Baldwin and Linda Bily share their passion for the wilderness and have spent the last fourteen years exploring the mountains of western BC and Alaska together. John Baldwin is author of the Mountains of the Coast (1999) and Exploring the Coast Mountains on Skis (2009). Over the past four decades he has completed numerous first ascents and pioneered many remote ski traverses. Linda Bily learned to ski at an early age on the windy, icy slopes of Calgary's Paskapoo Ski Hill.

Surprisingly, she continued to like the sport. She is a passionate skier, photographer and environmental engineer who fell in love with the big coastal glaciers of BC, Yukon and Alaska.

Doors open at 7:15 p.m. Presentation begins at 8:00 p.m. Beer, wine, and soft drinks will be available for purchase.
Non-members welcome!
